

CORPORATE COMICS

SHOWS CUSTOM-WRITTEN AND PERFORMED FOR ALL OCCASIONS.

"LAUGH OUT LOUD FUNNY!"
Associated Press

Starring Nonie Breen

Our divinely inspired nun will perform a custom-written show to highlight your firm's meeting points in a unique and comedic way. What better way to communicate your message than turning your conference room into a classroom?

"Sister" will brighten up your material by giving out prizes (maybe a holy card, a glow in the dark rosary, etc.) or doling out punishment. (sitting in a corner?) When she is through "the class" will know the material or heaven help them!

Corporate Comics provides an original, tailored show that will boost company morale, entertain your clients and staff, and keep them talking and laughing for the rest of the year!

ROASTS

Want to say farewell to a retiring employee? How about celebrating the boss' birthday in a hilarious way that no one will ever forget? "Sister" will highlight their lives, make them heroes (or saints) and show that special person just how much he or she is appreciated.

Master of Ceremonies
SPEAKER SUPPORT

Our clever nun will take the worry out of your event. Whether she reiterates important points from your speech or gives the speech for you, she will gladly take charge in a way that will leave your audience roaring!

Need something to excite your group?

OPEN WITH A BANG!

No one can wake them up better than a nun with a ruler! "Sister" can turn your tired, early morning crowd into a pack of enthusiastic, obedient pupils in a matter of seconds!
